

ENGLISH LANGUAGE SCHOOL ACCREDITATION COUNCIL ACCREDITATION FOR ENGLISH LANGUAGE SCHOOLS

English Language School
Accreditation Council
PURSUIT OF QUALITY

ELSAC

Evaluation Council & Members

ELSAC's success lies essentially in its professional and experienced Evaluation Council Members, who are responsible for providing relevant information about the benefits of international accreditation to English language schools worldwide. Coming from varied professional backgrounds, these members are administrators, faculty members, researchers, CEOs, entrepreneurs, experts and leaders in their fields. They are all volunteers who contribute to ELSAC's international accreditation standards in evaluating quality practices for English language schools.

The Evaluation Council Members of ELSAC get the opportunity to interact with a diverse community professionals in their respective regions around the world.

Meet our Evaluation Council Members and Advisors

Eric Holtz MBA, MEd, CELTA

Eric has been involved in both business and education for more than 25 years. His business credentials are varied and he has taught in International schools abroad. He has extensive experience in learning strategies, assessment and accreditation.

Michele Booyzen H.D.E.,BA.Ed, RemEd (SA), QTS (London)

Michele is the owner and founder of Targeted Remedial Tutoring and has been involved in teaching since the late 1980s. Michele has taught in and been Principal of many International schools in many different countries. She has been instrumental in the accreditation of International schools in Dubai and Qatar. Michele brings with her a wealth of experience and knowledge.

Deon Aurets

Deon is qualified by the SA Bureau of Standards for implementation and evaluating quality management systems. He is a quality assurance expert with many years of experience in implementing quality controls and strategies in various industries. He has been responsible for writing the quality control manuals for ISO 9001 and the implementation of Quality Management Systems (QMS).

Andrew McDonald

Andrew's diversified executive management abilities and international business experience have enabled him to hone his skills at leading and supporting a strong portfolio of key customers across the globe. Having single handedly researched, developed, launched and then marketed his own medical aid option in conjunction with Fedsure Health's (Pty) Ltd administration, he learnt very quickly how to achieve revenue targets through effective selling and key management relationships. Throughout his unique business ventures, his main responsibilities had to include business developments within local and regional communities through approaches to businesses and government bodies where he worked to provide a service designing, proposing, negotiating and agreeing on terms of business with all key contacts and regulatory organizations.

Elizabeth Regina BA (PR), Cert.TESOL

Elizabeth is a member of our advisory support team. Elizabeth is a qualified TEFL/TESOL teacher and tutor with extensive experience and currently lives in Europe.